

Presents: Mr. Thomas Burr

What do you do when you find out your kid is making poor choices?

Thomas Burr is the Communications Manager at NAMI Connecticut, and has been a member of the NAMI Public Policy staff since February 2011. As a member of NAMI for over 15 years, he has served on the Boards of both NAMI Connecticut and the NAMI Manchester Affiliate, including a stint as Board President of the Manchester Affiliate. His current position as Communications Manager is to help everyone in the State of Connecticut know about all the great things that NAMI does in regards to support, education and advocacy; helping people affected by mental health challenges.
